

What will I see and do on this Tour?

We encourage people to compare and ask questions about the sites and activities available on this tour and other tours. Stephanie and Hal would be happy to come visit your church group to share a presentation with you about the tour and answer any questions you might have. You will see much and do much more than we can cover in this brochure. But some of the highlights of the Princess Holyland Tour includes:

- Cruise on Sea of Galilee, visit the “Jesus Boat”
- Tour the Golan Heights, Gamla Nature Reserve
- Nazareth Village (lunch included)
- Temple Mount, Yad Vashem (Holocaust Museum), Western Wall and Tunnels, David’s City, David’s tomb, the Old City, Garden of Gethsemane, Mount of Olives, Shrine of the Book, Gordon’s Calvary/Garden Tomb (communion service),
- Caesarea by the Sea (site of Herod’s Palace and Roman City)
- Acco and the famous tunnels
- Scuba diving (optional) at the Red Sea
- Float on the Dead Sea

Ido Keynan—Licensed Israeli Tour Guide

References furnished upon request

You are cordially invited to travel on the journey of your lifetime from January 7-24, 2010 as Princess Holyland Tours returns to Israel, our 7th annual tour of the Holy Land. If you have ever considered a visit to the Promised Land in your lifetime, we would like you to consider joining our “mishpecha” (family) in 2010. We can “promise” you that you will not regret it!

And although we often refer to this as a “tour,” most who have taken this journey with us, do not think of it as “tour” but rather an EXPERIENCE OF A LIFETIME. For 16 glorious days you will see, hear, smell, taste, walk, learn and worship where the Bible comes to life. You will see and do things that have been described as “life changing.” You will return to your home revived and refreshed yet longing for the day when you might make your return to the Land.

“Ido, our guide was awesome, off the charts!”

What makes Princess Holyland Tours so special?

- 16 Touring Days (Double most Holyland Tours)
- We experience the “land” by walking on it, not merely looking at it through the window of a bus
- Value– We ask people to try to find a tour that offers so much at this price— $2,950+ airfare (see back of brochure for details)
- North, South, East and West– You will see Israel from it’s northern-most point near Mount Hermon to the southern-most point at Eilat on the Red Sea
- You will travel over into Petra, Jordan for a one-day visit to one of the New 7 Wonders of the World at this ancient Nabatean City amazingly cut into rock
- Hotel Accommodations and Meals are 1st Class

Our tour is planned to maximize every waking moment with an itinerary that is jam packed as we literally hit-the-ground-running upon arrival in Tel Aviv. On-Land travel accommodations are the nicest and cleanest in Israel aboard the new bus belonging to our dear friend and experienced driver David Levy.

The map of Israel shows the locations of the hotels serving as our “home-base” while touring in that area of the country. Below is the number of nights at each hotel. EXPERIENCE ALL of ISRAEL. Breakfast and dinner included at each hotel.

- 1 night - Tel Aviv: Dan Panorama
- 1 night - Haifa: Crowne Plaza
- 5 nights - Sea of Galilee: Kinar Classic
- 4 nights - Jerusalem: Dan Panorama
- 1 night - Dead Sea: Moriah Plaza
- 3 nights - Eilat: Crowne Plaza

You will have a chance to ‘play’ archaeologist while in Jerusalem sifting through dirt removed from the Temple Mount. In 2009 one of our “family” members found a coin and another found a 2,000 year old Roman Nail. Pottery and Roman glass are commonly found treasures in each bucket you sift.

Who/What is Princess Holyland Tours?

The best way to describe Princess Holyland Tours is to tell people what it is “NOT.” It is NOT a business or travel agency. It IS a calling of Stephanie and Hal Turley who have developed a special relationship with Israel and her people. It was during their 2003 tour they first met Ido Keynan, a last-minute substitute as their tour guide and since then, they have arranged subsequent tours with Ido. Each year, more people have joined with them, mostly learning of this unique Holyland experience by word-of-mouth. Unlike most tour coordinators, Stephanie and Hal pay the same fees as the other travelers. They are content with the blessings of merely making the arrangements and being privileged to accompany their fellow travelers, many first-time visitors, as they experience the Holy Land.

What others have said about this tour:

“I am recommending this trip to everyone I can. It was, seriously, the best vacation I have ever had.”

“I know I haven’t been to too many places, and traveled a whole lot, but I still don’t see how any place could top Israel. I feel so blessed to have been able to go.”

“I didn’t want to leave Israel, and I’m trying to figure out when I can go back (I couldn’t stop crying as we left; it really felt like leaving home).”

“But really, outstanding job, Stephanie! It couldn’t have been better. Everything about it was totally sababa.”

“Upon leaving, I truly felt as if my family had grown larger. I’ll never forget the time I was blessed to spend 2 ½ weeks in Israel.” (2009’s tour was extended 1-day)
